2021 Selección Reserva Pinot Noir

Selección Reserva

This series represents wines crafted from premium sites within our estate vineyards. These wines are built to drink beautifully for at least ten years, featuring deep concentration and new oak, while still maintaining focus on balance and elegance. Each offering outstanding quality and distinct character, always showcasing the meticulous work we put into our vineyards.

Vineyards

Featuring a combination of Robledo estate vineyards in Sonoma, and Carneros. Each planted with several clones per Robledo master grafting techniques. Soil type is loam-adobe. Average vine age is 20 years.

Tasting Note

This Pinot Noir opens up beautifully with bright rhubarb and hints of delicate but semi-sweet spices. Hints of floral bits tease the senses as they gently move through the wine. This wine is bright with subtle earthiness and a silky finish.
